COVERAGE TIPS FOR PRINT AND BROADCAST MEDIA

DATE	TIME AND LOCATION	EVENT
11/13	7:30 p.m. Kennedy Union Boll Theatre	Drug Testing and Right to Privacy Discussed
	Do drug testing programs and laws governing abortion and sexual conduct violate rights to privacy? Constitutional scholar Michael Perry, also a professor of law at Northwestern University, will discuss the privacy issue, including how the concept evolved and how it applies today.
11/13	7:30 p.m. Kennedy Union Ballroom	"The Science Question in Feminism"
	Philosopher Sandra G. Harding will address gender-related issues in scientific fields. This is the final program of an interdisciplinary series dealing with stereotyped gender roles.
11/14	3:30 to 3:45 p.m. McGinnis Center	Hands Across the "Ghetto"
	Students, faculty, and staff will form a human chain across the off-campus area to mark the beginning of Hunger Awareness Week. Money and canned goods will be donated to local relief agencies. (Should make a good visual.)
